

PIANO CONCERT

An evening of traditional jazz – swing, stride, ragtime, boogie woogie, and surprises – featuring two award-winning young pianists who already rank among the best!

Stephanie Trick and Paolo Alderighi

Friday, January 20, 2012 at 7:30 p.m.

The Ethical Society of St. Louis
9001 Clayton Road
Ladue, Missouri

These two talented and versatile pianists both have backgrounds and training in classical and jazz music, but they also enjoy playing stride, ragtime, and other styles of piano jazz from the 1920s and '30s. They have performed in many countries, consistently winning awards and recognition. Both frequently perform as soloists and with other instrumental musicians.

Paolo Alderighi

Stephanie Trick

Paolo has won 1st and 2nd prizes in categories of Musica Jazz magazine's Top Jazz 2007 referendum. He is a successful recording artist and teaches at Bocconi University in Milan, Italy.

A native of St. Louis, Stephanie began playing piano at age 5. Along the way, exposure to early jazz styles piqued her interest. She has studied under several celebrated musicians and has come to practically dominate the stride piano field. For more information, see: www.stephanietrick.com

Stephanie and Paolo will perform solo and duet pieces in this concert.

Tickets are $20 for the general public and may be purchased at the door. (Doors open at 6:45 p.m.) Admission price for Ethical Society members: $15.
