Stephanie Trick

Paolo Alderighi

These two talented and versatile pianists both have backgrounds and training in classical and jazz music, but they also enjoy playing stride, ragtime, and other styles of piano jazz from the 1920s and '30s. They have performed in many countries, consistently winning awards and recognition. Both frequently perform as soloists and with other instrumental musicians. A native of St. Louis, Stephanie began playing piano at age 5. Along the way, exposure to early jazz styles piqued her interest. She has studied under several celebrated musicians and has come to practically dominate the stride piano field. Paolo has won 1st and 2nd prizes in categories of Musica Jazz magazine's Top Jazz 2007 referendum. He is a successful recording artist and teaches at Bocconi University in Milan, Italy. For more information, see stephanietrick.com and paoloalderighi.com. At this concert, Stephanie and Paolo will perform both solo and duet pieces.

The cover charge will be $10 (students-$5)
